

Values, Central Concepts

1. The Self as Source from which All Values Flow, by Murray Stein
2. The Importance of the Value of Communitas in a Lonely World, by Leslie Stein
3. Is Activism a Value? by Andrew Samuels
4. Ubuntu – An African Contribution to the “Civilization of the Universal,” by Astrid Berg

Psychological Care

5. Trauma and Values, by Monica Luci
6. Psychological Care and Mental Health, by Alvaro Ancona de Faria
7. Challenges to Psychological Care in Difficult Times, by Valentina Samus
8. A Polytheistic Attitude as a Bridge to Transmit Humanistic Values in analysis in Times of War, by Tristan Troudart

Culture

9. Psyche as Fundamental Value and its Cultural, Historical and Individual Diversities, by Toshio Kawai
10. Blind Spots of the Western Mentality, by Harry Fogarty
11. Freedom and Dignity in a Post-Authoritaria Culture, by Gražina Gudaitė
12. Jungian Analysis as a Way of a New Cultural Renewal, by Sara Liuh

Communitas

13. How Outreach Work Shapes Values: A Zimbabwe Case Study, by Gary Read
14. Contribution, Gratitude and Communitas, by Brigit Soubrouillard
15. Conflicts and Their Potential for Solutions – Mediation Within Our Community, by Marianne Müller
16. Ethics and Communitas, by Tom Kelly

Values of Training

17. What Are We Training People For? by Jan Wiener
18. Between Knowledge and Values, by Yehuda Abramovitch
19. Dialogue Between Jan Wiener and Yehuda Abramovitch